Ace was found roaming the streets of Atchison. We think he's a mix, but he's primarily a Feist Terrier. He's got lots of spunk.

During the winter, he chews a hole in his blanket and wears it as a serape. It's very stylish! This is a smart little dog. He loves attention. He is always ready for action.

He has shown some aggression with large dogs here. The staff thinks he would be best placed in a home with no other dogs and, just to be extra safe, no small children. Behavior in kennel confinement is not always an indicator of behavior in a real home.

Ace has been with us for over a year. Come take him for a walk! This guy deserves a good home. He would return your affection 10 fold..

Feist Terriers were brought to the United States from England in the 1890's. Intelligent, alert, inquisitive, feisty and fearless, this affectionate dog makes an excellent companion. They are eager to please and easy to train. They love to go with you and do what you do. They enjoy games. The Feist Terrier is a hard working farmhand able to rid an infested barn of vermin with no problem.

Life expectancy 15-18 years

Concerns: They love to dig and can escape from a fenced yard. Slightly territorial. Chasing instincts. They need a good amount of exercise. This is a hardy breed with no serious health issues although some have developed allergies.

ADOPTION FEE: $80
